Mesa College ranks as San Diego's top transfer institution. Mesa's transfer rate consistently surpasses the statewide average, with over half of the college's student graduates transferring to a four-year institution within six years (Source: CCCCO DataMart).

Mesa College was the first community college in California to offer a bachelor's degree program. Mesa made history by awarding the first set of bachelor's degrees in Health Information Management in Spring 2018.

In 2016, Mesa became one of 38 Hispanic Serving Institutions throughout the state to receive a five-year, $5 million Title III grant from the U.S. Department of Education. Mesa’s program, STEM Conexiones (STEM Connections), aims to strengthen the college's capacity to serve underrepresented students interested in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math.

In 2019, Mesa College was the recipient of the DeVore Trophy, which is presented each year to the Pacific Coast Athletics Conference (PCAC) college with the most successful men's and women's intercollegiate athletic program. In 2017, the Mesa College Olympians football team won the Southern California Bowl.

The Stand at Mesa College is an equity effort to decrease the effects of poverty, hunger and homelessness for students. "The Stand" – a campus based food pantry and clothing - opened in February of 2017. In April 2018, Mesa College debuted “The Stand: Bowl.

The Stand at Mesa College is an equity effort to decrease the effects of poverty, hunger and homelessness for students. "The Stand" – a campus based food pantry and clothing - opened in February of 2017. In April 2018, Mesa College debuted “The Stand: Farmers Market,” which offers students free fresh produce each month. To date, the Farmers Market has provided over 150,813 pounds of fresh produce to over 8,773 households.

ABOUT THE SDCCD
Among the largest of California's 73 community college districts, the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) serves approximately 102,000 students annually at its three credit colleges, San Diego City College, Mesa College, Miramar College, and the seven non credit campuses of San Diego Continuing Education. The colleges offer associate degrees, and Continuing Education and the credit colleges offer career technical certificates that prepare students for transfer to universities and/or career pathways for gainful employment. In addition, Mesa College offers a bachelor's degree in Health Information Management as part of California’s Baccalaureate Degree Pilot Program. The SDCCD maintains active partnerships with local Industry, the community, military, and educational institutions to ensure students have clear pathways to careers and the next stage of their education.
