

Hello members of the Women's Studies Advisory Committee,
I hope you are well! I just wanted to give you all a heads up about an upcoming event sponsored by our Mesa Women's Alliance student club. On Tuesday November 7th from 11 am - 3 pm, we will be at a booth in the LRC Quad to raise awareness of sexual assault and harassment, and to inform our campus community of available resources to combat assault, harassment, and gender based violence. The student members have reached out to various campus members, and so far we will have Claudia Perkins from student affairs, a member from the district Title IX office, an officer from the Mesa Police Department Lt. Diana Medero, and our new Sexual Assault Victims Advocate Nicole Teran at our booth. Students have been hard at work making posters and writing skits about everyday instances of sexual harassment. I have also requested visix advertising of our event from the office of communications, but I'm not sure how quickly they will be able to put something together. Fingers crossed there.

If you all get a moment, please let your students know about this event, and if any of them are interested in getting involved with the Women's Alliance club, to stop by our booth and say hello. Also, if any of you would like to be added (or removed) from the club email list, so you can get the latest updates of our club events, please let me know.

Also, I also wanted to virtually introduce all of you to the new campus Sexual Assault Victims Advocate Nicole Teran (she is cc'd to this email). I know that Victoria Miller sent out a message on the DL a few weeks ago that she is here on campus, but I wanted to do my part to also spread the word.

Thanks!
Gloria
