

The SEEDS Video Contest is open to all Mesa College students. Up to 3 students may team up on a submission.

- Create and publish a 2-4 minute video that addresses one of the SEEDS themes: food security; hunger; sustainability.
- The content should educate the viewer about the significance of the topic. Use facts and research to support your position.
- Present at least one alternative that could improve society in respect to that topic.
- Use appropriate credits and avoid using copyrighted material without appropriate permissions.
- Publish to YouTube with hashtag #seedsmesa and #seedsvideocontest. (Use or create a gmail account to access your YouTube account.)

Completed submissions are due by noon, May 6, 2015.

The basis of judging will be:

- Clarity and strength of the presented content and relevance to one of the SEEDS themes.
- Creativity, originality, thoughtfulness, and appeal of the overall production.

Good luck and Have fun!!!
