

If a student begins the ASL Studies and ASL-English Interpretation programs with no or minimal ASL skills, students are required to take these following classes.

YEAR 1-2 (ASL Studies classes)	Fall *AMSL 115–ASL 1 and AMSL 115L *AMSL 116–ASL 2 and AMSL 116L *AMSL 215–ASL 3 and AMSL 215L *AMSL 216–ASL 4 and AMSL 216L *(AMSL 104) *(AMSL 105) *(AMSL 108) *(AMSL 225)	Spring *AMSL 115–ASL 1 and AMSL 115L *AMSL 116–ASL 2 and AMSL 116L *AMSL 215–ASL 3 and AMSL 215L *AMSL 216–ASL 4 and AMSL 216L *(AMSL 104) *(AMSL 105) *(AMSL 108) *(AMSL 225)	Summer To be determined
YEAR 3 (Interpretation classes)	Fall AMSL 205	Spring AMSL 206 AMSL 207
YEAR 4 (Interpretation classes)	Fall AMSL 208 AMSL 209 AMSL 210	Spring AMSL 276

*Required for ASL Studies major

Required for American Sign Language-English Interpretation major

Interpreter Certification from RID: To sit for the national performance evaluation, all Hearing individuals must have an AA as of July 1, 2009; BA will be required starting July 1, 2012. (Deaf interpreters must have an AA as of July 1, 2012 and a BA as of July 1, 2016.)

- ASL courses are available at most of the local community colleges; ASL-English Interpretation is only available at Mesa College and Palomar College