2010-11

The Fourth Bundle

The fourth bundle started the season very inexperienced with only three sophomores but by the end of the season, the 11 freshman played like sophomores and this is why the Lady Olympians had their most successful year on the court since the 200-7-08 campaign.

The lady Olympians finished the 2010-11 season with an overall record of 10-17, going 4-8 in Pacific Coast Athletic Conference play. In each of the past three years, the Lady Olympians have won more games in each successive year; something Head Coach Michael Hootner is very proud of. "It takes time to change the culture of a program and get the community and the players to buy into what your philosophy is. We feel like we turned a major corner this year and are very excited about next season.

Mesa was led by freshman sensation, captain, Denise White from Westview High School. Denise earned 1st-Team All-Conference laurels averaging over 10 points, nearly 4 boards, and 2 assists per game while shooting over 30% from behind the arc. 6'4 freshman, Asha McDonnell (Serra, San Diego) was a major force in the middle for the Lady Olympians. She blocked over 2 shots per game in PCAC play while averaging over 7 rebounds per game to go along with her 5 point average.

The Lady Olympians had a great supporting cast this year. 5'3 freshman, Chanel Putras (Grossmont, San Diego) was one of the big surprises. She had a terrific freshman campaign, which among other highlights included a 24-point performance in 60-59 win over Cuesta College. This included her going 8/16 from behind the arc! She also added 5 rebounds. Putras averaged nearly 5 points per game overall but presented a major presence for the Olys from behind the arc.

Sophomore captain Monique Correia also gave the opposition fits with her versatility. Her ability to get into the paint off the dribble as well as stick the 3 is why Mesa had so much more success this year on the offensive end of the floor. She averaged nearly 7 points per game while shooting over 30% from behind the arc including a career high 23 against Mira Costa, including 5 3's. Mesa's only other two sophomores, captains Shelby Watson (Mira Mesa, San Diego), and Bridgette Palmer (Odessa, Texas), provided Mesa with tremendous leadership and versatility as they were both able to play four different positions throughout the year. "They gave us stability and experience, especially early in the season when we needed a calming influence," said Olympian Head Coach Michael Hootner.

Freshman Karina Dekker (Concord, CA) was another freshman that gave Mesa great depth this year, especially at the guard spot. Dekker's numbers improved as the year went on averaging nearly 7 points per game in conference play, shooting 40% from 3.

Finally, freshmen Katie Ratfield (Modesto Christian, CA) and Janvier Barbarin gave the Olympians size and strength inside by averaging 4 rebounds apiece, respectively.
