

2007 SEASON in REVIEW

The 2007 Men's Tennis season finished the year with a dual match record of 9-7, including a 8-6 record in Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) play.

The Olympians started out with an 8-1 road loss at the hands of Cerritos College. But the Olympians bounced back to even their record at 1-1 after an 8-1 road victory over Long Beach City College.

Grossmont College, the 2007 PCC Champions beat the Olympians twice, 8-1 and 8-1. Southwestern College, who finished in second behind Grossmont also beat the Olympians in both matches, 7-2 and 6-3. And finally, Mount San Jacinto College also beat the Olympians in both meetings, although the matches were much closer, 6-3 and 5-4.

For the first time in nearly a decade, the Olympians not only beat Palomar College, but beat them in both meetings, 6-3 and 8-1. Mesa also swept San Diego City College, Victor Valley College, and Imperial Valley College, 9-0 and 6-3, 9-0 and 9-0, and 9-0 and 9-0, respectively.

After the Olympians finished in fifth place at the PCC Championships and a trip to the Ojai Tournament, Freshman James VanHess earned an at-large bid to the Southern California Regionals. He along with sophomore Mykola Orobey also made their way to the SoCal regionals and won their first two matches before losing to the eventual champs in the third round.

In singles, VanHess played #1, Orobey #2, Campbell #3, Medrano #4, Moosa #5, and Stamey, Gallardo, and Loza Jr. all played #6.

In doubles, VanHess and Orobey played #1, Campbell and Medrano #2, and Moosa, Loza Jr., and Gallardo played #3.
