2017–2018 High School Graduation Verification

A. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents to the San Diego Mesa College Financial Aid Office that indicates your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2017–2018:

- high school diploma.
- General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
- Academic transcript of a student who has successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
