Dear Student:

We are completing the evaluation of your file and we need additional information.

The information supplied on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is missing the asset information section. Unfortunately, until we have this information we can not continue processing your application for financial aid.

Therefore, we are requiring verification of your and/or your parents' assets information. We would appreciate your cooperation in completing the eligibility process.

We are requesting that you complete and return to our office the following information:

Student Name: _____ CSID# _____

As of the original date in which you filled out the FAFSA, what is the total current balance in:

	Your &/or Spouse Assets:	Parent's Assets:
