

San Diego Scholarship Foundation Book Award Scholarship

Administered by the San Diego Community College District Honors Program.

Application Instructions

The Book Award Scholarship offers $250 per semester for eligible full-time students or $125 per semester for eligible part-time students. The Book Award takes the form of an account in the bookstore. The account may be used for books and supplies, or for reimbursement of such purchases made in the bookstore during the applicable semester (keep your receipts).

To apply for the Book Award Scholarship, please:

1. Complete the Student Application
2. Write a 250-500 word essay (typed and double-spaced), describing your interests, long-term goals, and your reasons for seeking scholarship funds. If this is a renewal application, please attach your previously submitted essay. Include your name and student ID on the essay.
3. Please provide a copy of your most recent college transcript. (An e-Grades printout, sorted by semester, is acceptable.)
4. Please provide a copy of your Financial Aid Status. (You may use Reg-E to access and print your Financial Aid Status.)
5. Attach your essay, transcript, and Financial Aid Status to the Student Application and submit to the Mesa Honors Office in G 301, or to Professor Tracey Walker in G 337.

Eligibility: You must be a Mesa Honors student currently enrolled in at least 1 honors course or honors contract, have a cumulative G.P.A. of at least 3.25, and you must be eligible for financial aid. You must also submit all required application materials as listed above by the application deadline.

Please note: The Book Award Recipient accounts cannot be set up until the student is either enrolled in an Honors class or has turned in a completed Honors Contract. The student is responsible for completing the honors course; if the student drops the class before grades are submitted, the student is responsible for returning the scholarship funds to the Honors Program.

Be sure to save all book or material receipts from our bookstore for Fall Semester. Original receipts are needed for reimbursements. You cannot be reimbursed if you pay for books or material with Pell grants. All purchases must be made the Mesa College Bookstore.

Application Deadline:
Friday, August 28 NOON
