SCIENTIFIC JOURNAL STUDY GROUP

Interested in discussing scientific research with your fellow peers?

Looking to get a better understanding of scientific research in general?

Join TNT for Health during monthly meetings in which we share interesting research papers from all disciplines! Everyone is welcome to bring a research paper that interests them to share with the group or simply listen in. While TNT for Health is based in UCSD, all college students are welcome to join!

We are hoping to host our first meeting in July!
