RESOLUTION TO FORM AN AD HOC COMMITTEE TO REVIEW CITY COLLEGE CATALOG (96.9.2)

Whereas, the Mesa Academic Senate previously passed a resolution (95.8.1) supporting the reformatting of the college catalogs to make them more useful for students,

Whereas, this task was undertaken for the 1996-97 City Catalog, but there has been no progress at Mesa on this project,

Whereas, this fall faculty are concentrating on the district-wide task of reviewing the curriculum in order to establish pre and corequisites and advisories.

B. RESOLUTION ON CATALOG REFORM 96.9.2.

Mary Lou Locke gave the background on this resolution. The shaded portion was a friendly amendment.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Academic Affairs Committee review the City Catalog and make recommendations to the Senate, by the middle of Spring 1997 Semester, on the format changes Mesa College should adopt for the 1998-99 catalog

The floor was opened up for discussion. Barbolla suggested that rather than form a new committee, the Academic Affairs Committee would be an appropriate body to discuss this.

The motion passed unanimously.
