Resolution 10.2.3 – Resolution on Decision-Making Processes:

First Reading: February 8, 2010

Move: McLeod

Second: Ontell

Whereas proper planning is essential for institutional excellence; and

Whereas Mesa College has a long tradition of shared governance in which stakeholders are given adequate time to evaluate decisions;

Whereas recently there has been a shift in this process, and decisions are being made top down and imposed in haste without adequate consideration of consequences;

Be it Resolved: that Mesa College faculty insist that all shared-governance decisions follow the established processes and be given adequate time for all stakeholders to appropriately review, debate and revise before final decisions are made and/or implemented; and,

Be it further Resolved: that Mesa College faculty will not participate in processes or procedures that are developed outside of the above established guidelines.

Presented to Academic Senate: February 8, 2010

Approved at Academic Senate: February 22, 2010
