

Mesa Pathways Inquiry Team Meeting
Proactive and Integrative Student and Academic Support (PIZZAS)
Wednesday, February 12th, 2:30 PM to 4 PM
LRC-432

Agenda

Welcome!

Logistics

Old Business

1. Discuss Pathways Retreat
2. Collaboratory
3. Student Participation Group

New Business

1. Brave Communication Glossary

Next Meeting: February 26, 2:30-4:00, LRC-432

Mission: The mission of the Proactive and Integrated Student and Academic Support Pathways inquiry group (PIZZAS) is to be model communicators, intentionally bringing the campus community together to investigate new and ongoing innovative, promising, and equitable support practices for students. At the heart of our mission are open, shared, and continuous inquiry and learning. Our goal is to integrate support services into the fabric of students' learning experiences at Mesa, proactively meeting students where they are and supporting their educational achievement.

Intentional about these Intersections:

Work Groups: Brave Communication (Andy) ___ Guided Majors and Mapping (Tina) ___ Onboarding & Career Exploration (Tied to SW Pathways Navigation) ___ Equity ___ Data ___ Student Services/LRAS/Instruction ___

Meeting Agendas & Minutes

Membership

Parking Lot

Mesa Pathways Inquiry Team Meeting
Proactive and Integrative Student and Academic Support (PIZZAS)
Wednesday, February 12th, 2:30 PM to 4 PM
LRC-432

Minutes

Welcome!

- Attended: Kim Tran, Sade Burrell, Markus Berrien, Trina Larson, Mark Manasse, Johanna Aleman, Katie Palacios, Zoe Adler

Logistics

Old Business

1. Discuss Pathways Retreat
2. Collaboratory Ideas:
 - a. Create groups that work with each other throughout the year: Collaboratory, working sessions throughout year, Next year's collaboratory
 - b. Gap between PIZZAS and faculty: Faculty doing Mesa journeys in class
 - c. Other ideas: Childcare on campus, Pets on campus, college hour, help for online students, night time students, part time students
3. Collaboratory: Agenda
 - a. Connecting the campus community with PIZZAS inside and outside of the classroom
 - b. Lived experience of participants
 - c. Student panels
 - d. Data: Bridget and team
 - e. Speed dating with services
 - f. Working Session: Supporting Success/Transfer Capital leading to workgroups
4. Collaboratory: Friday, June 26. Requested Mesa Commons
5. Student Participation Group

New Business

1. Brave Communication Glossary: Equity needs to be in glossary. Define PIZZAS.

Next Meeting: February 26, 2:30-4:00, LRC-432

Mission: The mission of the Proactive and Integrated Student and Academic Support Pathways inquiry group (PIZZAS) is to be model communicators, intentionally bringing the campus community together to investigate new and ongoing innovative, promising, and equitable support practices for students. At the heart of our mission are open, shared, and continuous inquiry and learning. Our goal is to integrate support services into the fabric of students' learning experiences at Mesa, proactively meeting students where they are and supporting their educational achievement.

Intentional about these Intersections:

Work Groups: Brave Communication (Andy) ___ Guided Majors and Mapping (Tina) ___ Onboarding & Career Exploration (Tied to SW Pathways Navigation) ___ Equity ___ Data ___ Student Services/LRAS/Instruction ___

Meeting Agendas & Minutes

Membership

Parking Lot

Mesa Pathways Inquiry Team Meeting
Proactive and Integrative Student and Academic Support (PIZZAS)
Wednesday, February 12th, 2:30 PM to 4 PM
LRC-432

SUMMARY Minutes

1. Collaboratory Ideas:
 - a. Create groups that work with each other throughout the year: Collaboratory, working sessions throughout year, Next year's collaboratory
 - b. Gap between PIZZAS and faculty: Faculty doing Mesa journeys in class
 - c. Other ideas: Childcare on campus, Pets on campus, college hour, help for online students, night time students, part time students
2. Collaboratory: Agenda
 - a. Connecting the campus community with PIZZAS inside and outside of the classroom
 - b. Lived experience of participants
 - c. Student panels
 - d. Data: Bridget and team
 - e. Speed dating with services
 - f. Working Session: Supporting Success/Transfer Capital leading to workgroups
 - g. Collaboratory: Friday, June 26. Requested Mesa Commons

New Business

1. Brave Communication Glossary: Equity needs to be in glossary. Define PIZZAS.

Next Meeting: February 26, 2:30-4:00, LRC-432

Mission: The mission of the Proactive and Integrated Student and Academic Support Pathways inquiry group (PIZZAS) is to be model communicators, intentionally bringing the campus community together to investigate new and ongoing innovative, promising, and equitable support practices for students. At the heart of our mission are open, shared, and continuous inquiry and learning. Our goal is to integrate support services into the fabric of students' learning experiences at Mesa, proactively meeting students where they are and supporting their educational achievement.

Intentional about these Intersections:

Work Groups: Brave Communication (Andy) ___ Guided Majors and Mapping (Tina) ___ Onboarding & Career Exploration (Tied to SW Pathways Navigation) ___ Equity ___ Data ___ Student Services/LRAS/Instruction ___

Meeting Agendas & Minutes

Membership

Parking Lot