Mission: The mission of the Proactive and Integrated Student and Academic Support Pathways inquiry group (PIZZAS) is to be model communicators, intentionally bringing the campus community together to investigate new and ongoing innovative, promising, and equitable support practices for students. At the heart of our mission are open, shared, and continuous inquiry and learning. Our goal is to integrate support services into the fabric of students' learning experiences at Mesa, proactively meeting students where they are and supporting their educational achievement.
