Here you may wish to go back to the Personality Mosaic and put parentheses around numbers of items that you weren't sure of to see how they change your score. Putting X's on numbers of statements that are not you can give you a negative total to show which personality types are least like you.

To get more in touch with yourself, form a group and take turns reading some of the statements for each orientation from the Personality Mosaic. Be that kind of person; embellish and dramatize the statements. See how they feel.
