New Transfer Center!

AA-T / AA-T Degrees

Transfer Myth!

BE PROACTIVE!

Don't wait until the end of November to submit your application! This is a very challenging time. Make sure that your application has been reviewed, and that you're aware of all of the deadlines you must meet. Plan ahead!

The new AA/T and AS/T degrees for transfer are here, and will give you priority admission to the CSU system. Don't leave your future to chance. Make sure that you meet all of your transfer obligations.

You should compare all of your possible schools of choice, and be able to know what the benefits of each one is.

Important Upcoming Transfer Dates

Transfer Myth: "I should wait until I've been accepted to make contact with my school"

Definitely not true. Every student needs to find answers to the important questions that they have about their education. It's never too early to start asking them. The transfer center wants Mesa students to get in the habit of contacting future schools as early as possible. Some of the benefits are that you will get a feel for what the culture of being a student at a particular school is like. You obviously want to attend a place that wants and respects you. One way to establish that you will have that kind of relationship, is to contact the school before you've been accepted there.

This month's main story: Come visit the transfer center in our new home! We opened for visits starting on October 23!

- We have expanded our student computer work area better serve students.
- There is now a dedicated room for visiting university representatives to meet with students.
- The space to accommodate Transfer workshops has been greatly increased.
- Students have access to all of Mesa's student services areas, all under one roof!

Make sure your education plan is up to date. It's almost time to enroll in classes for Spring 2013. You should have an education plan, and understand what your options are if you can't get a class that you would like to have.
